

Moneyquest a winner

MONEYQUEST has taken top honours at the Glasgow Chamber of Commerce Business Awards less than a week after announcing it was to create 100 new jobs in the city.

The telephone and online mortgage and insurance brokers, one of the five biggest in the UK, was among nine companies recognised at a dinner last night, after handling more than £1 billion of business from Scotland last year,

Also recognised was Lord Macfarlane of Bearsden - with an award for his contribution to the business community - and the refurbishment of Kelvingrove Art Gallery.
